About the Bulldog Pride Fund

Founded in 2005 and recognized in 2006, the Bulldog Pride Fund (BPF) is an endowment that provides an annuity to support student scholarships at Fresno State.

The earnings (interest) of the BPF are used to fund scholarships, while the principal continues to earn interest in perpetuity for future scholarships.

The BPF is maintained under the auspices of the Fresno State Alumni Association, a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization recognized by the Internal Revenue Service.

The BPF is administered by the Scholarship Office, Division of Student Affairs. The scholarship criteria are that a Fresno State "incoming or returning student(s)" have "good academic standing" and have "demonstrated pride in the community."

Donations are deposited into an endowment account that is invested in a diverse portfolio with the assistance and guidance of Merrill Lynch.

The BPF accepts cash, checks and credit cards. The BPF also welcomes gifts such as securities, real property, corporate matching gifts and bequests.

BPF donations are tax-deductible to the full extent of the law. A donation made today will give — in some capacity — tomorrow and beyond.

AMICVS et ANGELVS

The Bulldog Pride Fund at Fresno State salutes and honors the memory of William N. Beck

A generous bequest of $100,000 from the estate of William N. Beck (1929-2007), pictured with three-time scholar and donor Jared Lindo, has been entrusted to the Bulldog Pride Fund.

This represents the largest gift to an alumni association scholarship endowment at any of the California State University's 23 campuses. A loyal Fresno State College graduate (Class of '52), Beck's legacy will support student scholarships in perpetuity. Thank you so much, Bill. You're a dear "friend and angel."

Bulldog Pride Fund Scholars highlighted in Fresno Magazine

"A non-profit endowment at Fresno State called the Bulldog Pride Fund is bringing aid to students who truly need it. The Fund's goal is to support students with good academic standing who demonstrate pride in the community. The recipients of the Fund share the common goals of receiving an education and giving back to the community."
—Fresno Magazine

The March 2008 issue of Fresno Magazine included an article and photo on the 2007-08 Bulldog Pride Fund scholars — Jared Lindo, Adrian Quintero and Sara Martinez.

Jared Lindo featured in "thank you" video on YouTube

"I'd like to thank all the donors that have been able to support me..."

—JARED LINDO

Jared Lindo, three-time Bulldog Pride Fund scholar and donor, is featured in a 30-second "thank you" video posted on YouTube.
