RICHARD DONALD HUDDLESTON

Richard Donald Huddleston, the beloved son of Mildred and Earl Huddleston, died on Monday, January 21, 2008, at the age of 65.

Richard had a dedicated and generous spirit. He was dedicated to every position he ever held. He was dedicated to enjoying life with the people he loved. He was dedicated and sensitive to the needs of his family and friends. His generosity was evident as all his family and friends could attest.

At Fresno State College, he earned a degree in marketing, which led employment with large advertising firms in Chicago and San Francisco. Later he moved back to Fresno to become advertising manager for Duncan Ceramics. Following that, Richard worked as direct marketing manager at The Fresno Bee.

His love of travel led him to work organizing tour packages for Janotta Tours and Lewis Travel. Richard served in the United States Coast Guard, taking part in the officer's candidate training program. Richard is preceded in death by his sister, Judy Donahue; and his nephew, Ryan Donahue. He is survived by his parents, his niece Kimberly and her husband Ladd and their children Natasha and Roman; as well as many aunts and uncles.
